WORK HARD, BUT I LIKE WEST POINT.

Another District boy's name has been added to the roster at West Point. Robert S. Trimble, twenty years old, of 722 Eighteenth street sorthwest, eon of Dr. Robert S. Trimble, is now a cadet at West Point. He received his appointment to the Milltary Academy several days a through Senator John Kendrick, Wyoming, and has already been en-

Young Trimble, writing home from the military school, says: "Although the work is rather hard, I like it and expect to get used to the iron disci-pline here in a short time." The cadet graduated from Central High School in 1916 and at the time of his appointment was filling a cleri-cal position with the Signal Corps. During his four years at Central he apent most of his time in the cadets and studying, giving little time to other activities in his effort to quali-fy himself for West Point. The boy is a graduate of the Grant school in this city and his record in both gram-mar and high school has been nearly

GOVERNMENT NOT TO

Rumors prevailing throughout the city to the effect that the Govern ment had taken over Glen Echo Park or was about to do so and use the property for an aviation school, no cessitating the closing of the amuse-ments, were denied this morning by L. B. Schloss, general mahager of the company operating the resort. He stated that at no time had there been any thought of closing the park until September 15, the usual date that ends the yearly season.

No curtailment of any of the fea-tures is contemplated.

WRAPPED IN U. S. FLAGS,
WOMEN STOP WORKMEN

SUNBURY, Pa., June 19.—Wrapped in American flags, Mrs. John Koenig and Mrs. John Meyers effectively stopped an attempt of a party of workmen to lay a pipeline across their properties.

Refusal had been made several days ago, according to the women, and when they saw they were being ignored they said they decided to do something.
